Leroy Snow Takes San Pedro Bride At Church Wedding

One hundred guests attended the wedding of Priscilla Jane Abel, San Pedro, to Leroy Zane Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Snow, of 1108-Anapola ave., Nov. 16 at the San Pedro First Methodist church. The bride was escorted to the altar by her uncle, E. G. Gorham. Her only attendant was Mrs. Dale Armstrong. Archie Snow attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Walter Moore, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Dale Armstrong. Patria Gayle Dennison, niece of the bridegroom, carried the ring hidden in a colonial bouquet.

The bride was dressed in white slipper satin, fashioned along princess lines, with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and train. Seed pearls outlined the neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of shirred maline. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia, centered with an orchid. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace belonging to her mother which had been a gift from her father.

Mrs. Armstrong was dressed in apple green taffeta with matching flower turban and veil. She carried a shower bouquet of tallman roses and gardenias. Mrs. Hartfield wore black velvet with matching accessories. Mrs. Snow was dressed in black crepe. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Moylene Sanders Whealey sang and Don Stone played the accompaniments and wedding marches at the organ. Floor baskets of giant chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The reception followed the ceremony in Friendship hall. A three-tiered cake, topped with twin wedding rings and doves, centered the refreshment table. Mrs. Myrtle Rockus served the cake after the bride had cut the first piece.

For her going-away outfit, the bride wore an ice blue crepe dress with matching felt hat and a brown plaid coat with fox collar. Her other accessories were brown.

The bride is a graduate of San Pedro high school and Polytechnic Beauty school. Mr. Snow, a graduate of Torrance high school, is employed at Columbia Steel Co.

Recent Bride Making Home in Torrance

Prior to her recent wedding in San Pedro, Mrs. Leroy Zane Snow was Priscilla Abel, daughter of Mrs. Lucille Hartfield of the port city. Mrs. Snow and her husband are at home to their friends here at 705-F Sartori ave., following a honeymoon trip to Sacramento.
